

Diversity and equal opportunities Policy

Aims

To provide all employees with an equal chance of advancement, access to opportunity and training necessary to that end, regardless and irrespective of their sex, race, colour, nationality, ethnic origin, sexual orientation, religion or belief, age or disability.

It is the company's policy to employ and provide a suitable environment for people with disabilities. All reasonable facilities will be provided for employees with disabilities to pursue their careers without difficulty or disadvantage.

This policy covers staff, associates and volunteers.

Overview

(a) It is the policy of The Root Of It to ensure that no job applicant or employee receives less favourable treatment on the grounds of sex, race, marital status, disability, age, part-time or fixed term contract status, sexual orientation or religion, or is disadvantaged by conditions or requirements that cannot be shown to be justifiable. The organisation is committed not only to its legal obligations but also to the positive promotion of equality of opportunity in all aspects of employment.

(b) The organisation recognises that adhering to this policy, combined with relevant employment policies and practices, maximises the effective use of individuals in both the organisation's and employees' best interests. The Root Of It recognises the great benefits in having a diverse workforce with different backgrounds, solely employed on ability.

(c) The application of recruitment, training, and promotion policies to all individuals will be on the basis of job requirements and the individual's ability and merits.

(d) All employees of the organisation will be made aware of the provisions of this policy.

Recruitment and promotion

(a) Advertisements for posts will give sufficiently clear and accurate information to enable potential applicants to assess their own suitability for the post. Information about vacant posts will be provided in such a manner that does not restrict its audience in terms of sex, race, marital status, disability, age, part-time or fixed term contract status, sexual orientation or religion.

(b) Recruitment literature will not imply a preference for one group of applicants unless there is a genuine occupational qualification which limits the post to this particular group, in which case this must be clearly stated.

(c) All vacancies will be circulated internally.

(d) All descriptions and specifications for posts will include only requirements that are necessary and justifiable for the effective performance of the job.

(e) All selection will be thorough, conducted against defined criteria and will deal only with the applicant's suitability for the job. Where it is necessary to ask questions relating to personal circumstances, these will be related purely to job requirements and asked to all candidates.

Employment

(a) The Root Of It will not discriminate on the basis of sex, race, marital status, disability, age, part-time or fixed term contract status, sexual orientation or religion in the allocation of duties between employees employed at any level with comparable job descriptions.

(b) The Root Of It will put in place any reasonable measures and/or adjustments within the workplace for those employees who become disabled during employment or for disabled appointees.

(c) All employees will be considered solely on their merits for career development and promotion with equal opportunities for all.

Training

(a) Employees will be entitled to apply for appropriate training regardless of sex, race, marital status, disability, age, part-time or fixed term contract status, sexual orientation or religion.

(b) All employees will be encouraged to discuss their career prospects and training needs with their Line Manager or the People Support Team.

Grievances and victimisation

(a) The Root Of It emphasises that discrimination is unacceptable conduct which may lead to disciplinary action under the organisation's Disciplinary Procedure.

(b) Any complaints of discrimination will be pursued through the organisation's Grievance Procedure.

Raising concern

If you feel that the diversity policy has not been fully implemented then you should draw this to the attention of your line manager, in the first instance.

If the matter is not resolved satisfactorily you may raise a grievance through the company's grievance procedures.

Responsibilities

It is the responsibility of every manager to ensure that the terms of the policy are observed.

Breach of this policy may result in disciplinary or legal action being taken.

Review

This policy will be reviewed annually.
